

ATTACHMENT 16

Nominations for the Officers of the International Halliwick Association's Committees
 the General Meeting, October 14th – 15th, 2023

Members of the Education and Research Committee
Nominated Education and Research Committee:	Maria Montserrat Gutierrez Bassas (Catalonia)
Short note on the current activity, promotion, implementation of the Halliwick Concept and predispositions, resources, strengths useful for the Association in terms of the position the application concerns (200 words)	CURRENT ACTIVITY: Although I have not been in full shape for 2 years due to illness, I had been involved in E&R meetings and following my work as Chair of the Halliwick Catalan Association (with the help of my IHA and Catalan colleagues) during this period of time. I will very soon be able to keep on practicing Halliwick with swimmers & their families again. CURRENT ACTIVITY: Organizing and teaching the Halliwick Concept around the year in a variety of settings (Catalan Halliwick association, schools, PT neurology master's degree). Chair Catalan Halliwick Association. Mentoring trainees to become Halliwick lecturers in Catalunya, Mexico and Costa Rica. STRENGTHS: Pediatrics' neurology and adults. Mental health. Enthusiasm, eager to carry on learning and sharing knowledge and experience, contributing to spreading the Halliwick Concept approach.
Name of individual member/national association that gives nomination (1)	ASSOCIACIÓ CATALANA DEL CONCEPTE HALLIWICK-SALA PUIGVERD
Name of individual member/national association that gives nomination (2)	ANN GRESSWELL (AST UK)
Nominated Education and Research Committee:	Moscholouri Chrysoula (Greece)
Short note on the current activity, promotion, implementation of the Halliwick Concept and predispositions, resources, strengths useful for the Association in terms of the position the application concerns (200 words)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Senior lecturer in basic and advanced Halliwick courses in Greece and abroad - Teacher in public secondary education in Ph therapists' assistance. - Founding member and secretary of the Halliwick Association of Greece. - Researches interest about Halliwick as a senior Halliwick lecturer - Master of arts in special education and in education

International Halliwick Association
 c/o Treasurer: Bodil Føns Knudsen
 Jacobsvej 22,
 3310 Ølsted
 Denmark

Central Business Registration no: 39295709

www.halliwick.org
 info@halliwick.org

	and human rights – Kapodistriako University of Athens, master of science in pediatric Pth. At International Hellenic University.
Name of individual member/national association that gives nomination (1)	Chandolias Konstandinos, PT, Senior Halliwick Lecturer
Name of individual member/national association that gives nomination (2)	Yael Yoshi, OT, Halliwick Lecturer
Members of the Gala Subcommittee
Nominated (Gala Subcommittee):	Hanne Bjørling Grøn (Denmark)
Short note on the current activity, promotion, implementation of the Halliwick Concept and predispositions, resources, strengths useful for the Association in terms of the position the application concerns (200 words)	Active Halliwick practitioner for more than 30 years. Member of the Danish Halliwick Association (HASAM) Exc. Committee from 1993 to 2022. Halliwick Lecturer since 2009. Active in the HASAM's GALA Committee and specialist in the Gala program together with Harald Lie. Halliwicker by heart. I communicate at a high level in English
Name of individual member/national association that gives nomination (1)	Halliwick Samarbejdet i Danmark (HASAM)
Name of individual member/national association that gives nomination (2)	Maciej Kampa, Halliwick Poland